

LOCALS.

is drying up.

Hawn is building an addition to his residence.

Job work of every description promptly executed at this office.

Last Monday was an ideal spring day, but it soon turned considerably cooler.

J. M. Jones, representing the Painter, Tobey & Jones Co. of Chicago paid this office a pleasant call last Wednesday.

The First National Bank gave us their order this week for 10,000 deposit slips. Thanks. Now who is the next for work?

Look out, merchants, the advertisers are the ones who are getting the business; you had better put your ad in the ADVOCATE.

See the new ad of Hignite & Childers in this issue. They carry a nice line of goods and enjoy a good trade because their prices are right.

Hunt up your whitewash brush and give your fencing a nice coat of lime, it will improve the appearance and preserve the fencing. Try it once.

A protracted meeting began last Monday night at the Baptist church. Dr. Baker is being assisted in these meetings by Rev. Dow, of Indian Territory.

Miller & Son have enlarged their ad this week from a three inch single to a five inch double column, which shows that they find that advertising pays.

J. W. McNamara has a nice ad in this issue. See it, and when you want anything in his line don't fail to give him a call; he is sure to treat you right.

This office has just printed the by-laws for Knox Encampment No. 36. I. O. O. F. of Artemus and the work was highly complimented by the committee.

Dr. G. N. Jolly went to London last Saturday to preach but, gave way to the Southern Methodist church, who were in the midst of a revival meeting.

It is now about time to clean up the premises and get rid of the ash dumps and tin cans. Springtime is about here, don't wait for the health officer to notify you.

We call attention this week to the neat display ad of E. F. Hurst the butcher. He carries a full supply of choice meats and sells them at satisfactory prices. Give him a call.

Mr. W. S. Martin, a store-keeper and gauger and a leading farmer, of Grays, was in town Monday. Mr. Martin came with his sister, Miss Nevada Martin, who entered school at Union College Tuesday.

Bring your job printing to this office and we will give you prompt service at reasonable prices. No matter what you want we can do it. Come and let us figure with you on prices.

Considerable work has been done this week in the way of spreading broken stone upon the streets which will be of great benefit to keep the traveling public out of the mud. Let the good work go on.

A few more warm days and the small boys will be seen headed toward the river with their fishing rod and "can of bait" with hearts beating, fondly expecting to catch the largest fish that swims.

There will be preaching at the M. E. Church next Sunday morning by the pastor Dr. G. N. Jolly but no service will be held on Sunday night on account of the protracted meeting which is now in progress at the Baptist Church.

Merchants, you want to advertise your spring goods and let the public know what you have. The best way is through your own paper. The ADVOCATE goes into the homes and is read by every member of the family, while posters are thrown away, without so much as taking a glance at their contents.

Through a typographical error we said last week that W. R. Cole had 100,000 bbls of flour for sale, when we should have said 100,000 lbs, but he sells it just the same and will sell 100,000 bbls before the season is over if he gets a chance.

Those Handsome Presents,

Ladies, don't you want to win one of those handsome pieces of jewelry we are going to give away in the popularity contest as advertised.

We respectfully invite you to call at the First National Bank and ask to see these articles. They will bear the closest inspection, and the officers of the bank will take pleasure in showing you these goods. Now the one who secures the largest subscription list before June 1st will get the handsome Diamond Ring, and by a little effort you may secure it for yourself. Send in the names and money and let us enter your name in the list of contestants.

The Next Attraction.

The next attraction of the Union College will be given about April 12, and will be the popular lecturer A. W. Hawks, the Laughing Philosopher, on the subject: "Sunshine and Shadow."

Mr. Hawks is considered one of the best humorist lecturers in this country, and the management has been very fortunate to secure him for this date, and those who fail to avail themselves of this opportunity will miss a rare treat. Mr. Geo. E. Nolan, Manager of the Lyceum, of Atlanta, Ga., in a letter to the Southern Lyceum Bureau, of Louisville, says, "You certainly did not overrate Mr. Hawks. He is as bright as new money, and surely catches the people. We long for his return. He strengthened our cause very much. Socially, he is charming. In every respect I was pleased with him."

PERSONALS.

In the joint session of the Legislature last Tuesday Miss Pauline Hardin was re-elected as State Librarian for a term of four years. No excitement was manifested during the polling of the vote, which was divided along party lines. Miss Hardin was the nominee of the Democratic caucus, and Miss Pearl Hindman was the nominee of the Republican caucus. The vote stood 101 to 20 in favor of Miss Hardin.

In a pitched battle which occurred in Knott county between moonshiners and Revenue officers last Tuesday, it was rumored that Will and John Haddox were killed and Jack Combs fatally wounded by the officers. One Deputy Marshal was reported killed. It is said the moonshiners were operating their still in a cave and were surprised by the officers, but refused to surrender.

In Louisville some smooth swindler has been duping some of the residents into paying him 35 cents for a mail box which, of course, he never delivered. He impersonated Postmaster Baker, and told his victims that unless they bought boxes they would no longer receive their mail through the free delivery. Post-office inspectors are at work on the case, and if the guilty party is found he will be dealt with in the Federal Court.

In the Senate last Tuesday a bill was passed to make the Circuit Clerk in Kenton count on the referee on the Election Board in place of the Sheriff. The bill was taken from the order of the day by a viva voce vote, the Republicans making no demand for the yeas and nays. Strong arguments were heard, both for and against the bill before the vote was taken. The vote stood 19 to 12 in favor of the bill. The amendment to make the bill apply to the entire State was defeated by a vote of 16 to 11.
